

NEWSLETTER APRIL 2016

www.v2.nl

16 May seems far away, but this date is the deadline if you'd like to apply for a Summer Sessions residency in August/September. On the first of April we have Dries Depoorter who kicks off a series of three public experiments by one artist. We call it 3x3. The next day we host a Noodlebar workshop with modular-synth performances in the evening. Later in the month we have the festive booklaunch of Ruben Jacob's Everyone is an Artist. There's even more, so don't forget to check the V2 website or our social channels to keep up-to-date.

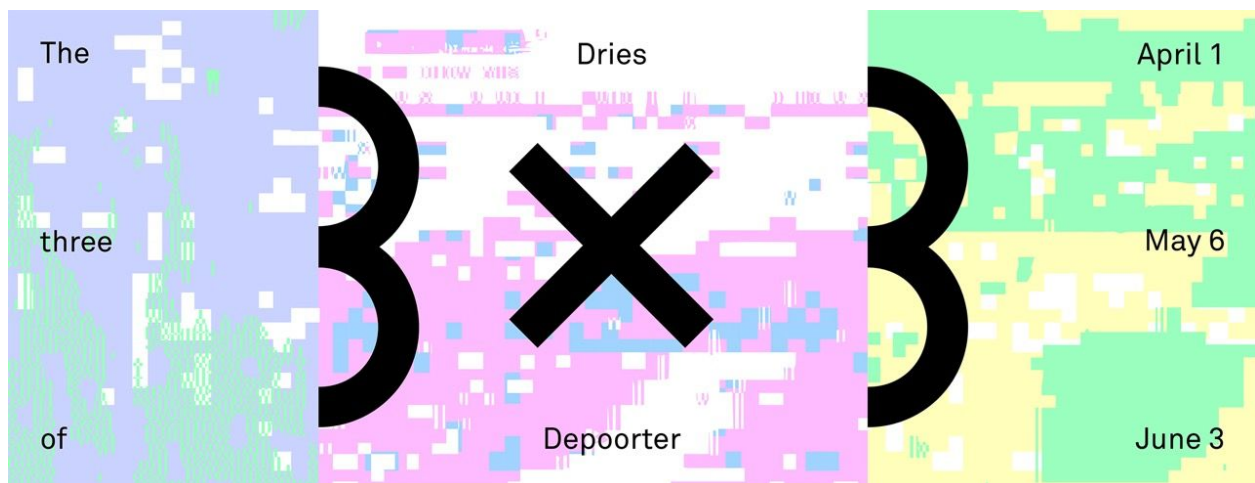

3X3 THE THREE OF DRIES DEPOORTER

With 3x3 V2_ offers three artists the space, time and resources to develop three experiments. Every first Friday evening of the month the public can witness one of these experiments live. Dries Depoorter kicks off the series. He will work on three experiments in a period of three months. In a humorous way he plays with social identity, private data, big data and online privacy.

SUMMER SESSIONS CALL

Deadline 16 May

lab/projects/summer-sessions-call-2016

Are you an ambitious, early career artist, full of ideas and ready to realize your project this summer? Then apply for a Summer Sessions Residency by submitting a video, in which you briefly explain your project, the support you need and why you should be a part of the Summer Sessions. The Summer Sessions are short-term residencies for young artists organized by a network of cultural organizations all over the world. The Summer Sessions offer a highly productive atmosphere with production support and expert feedback to jumpstart your professional art practice. The result is a pressure cooker in which you develop a project, from concept to presentable work, ready to show. Interested? Apply now.
